

Colleen Eccleston (BC)

She is all about melody and rhythm, wordplay and humour and it is a rare and wonderful experience to see this woman doing what she is so obviously meant to do. Her emotional range is riveting and her voice will leave you breathless. Her love of life nothing short of contagious!

Still very much a member of The Ecclestons, Colleen has also performed and recorded extensively as a solo artist.

She has fronted a rock band, been actively an environmentalist and peace activist, she has a degree in acting and is a rock and roll and songwriting professor.

She has also toured with James Keelaghan, Under the Moss, Rattle in the Dash, Grand Union, Sandy Scofield and Jenny Allen as the SAE band and Valdy to name a few.

She has appeared in concert with Lucie blue Tremblay, Christine Lavin, Garnet Rogers, Sue Medley, Mae Moore, John Gorka, Paul Horn and Morrie Stearns, Ron Hynes and the list goes on

REVIEWS

“Victoria’s Colleen Eccleston is a remarkable singer. She is a gifted songwriter and a very strong rhythm guitarist. Her on-stage ebullience makes her concerts a delight, but she can switch from a carefree song about life on the road to a sobering tale of environmental or interpersonal damage with consummate ease” - The Rogue Folk Club
